5 September 2017

Bright Grahame Murray's inaugural alumni event, held in London on 15th June this year, has been hailed a huge success by hosts and guests alike.

Over 100 people attended the event, which took place at Kensington's Crowne Plaza Hotel. Guests included past and present colleagues, spanning six decades, from the 1960s through to the newest members from the 2017 graduate intake.

Ex Bright Grahame Murray partner, David Bernstein, Chairman of the British Red Cross and former Chairman of the Football Association, gave an entertaining and thought provoking address.

Senior Partner at Bright Grahame Murray, Mark Cole, who also spoke at the event said: "It was wonderful to welcome back so many former friends and colleagues, alongside current partners and staff. We are proud of our history and the people who helped make Bright Grahame Murray into the strong and successful brand it is today. The event was a celebration of our pride in the past and our confidence in the future."
