Bright Grahame Murray relocates to Kensington as demand for services grows

15th November 2016

Bright Grahame Murray is relocating to new offices at 114a Cromwell Road, London, SW7 4AG on 21st November 2016. The move to Emperor's Gate, Kensington, follows the recent recruitment of new senior staff as the firm looks to expand operations both in the UK and internationally.

The new location places Bright Grahame Murray in the very heart of Kensington, close to Gloucester Road tube station and some of London's most prestigious buildings. It's excellent access to the London Underground and nearby car parks will benefit both clients and staff alike.

Mark Cole, Senior Partner at Bright Grahame Murray: "We are much looking forward to moving in to our new offices. The prime location and new facilities will enable us to continue to expand and strengthen our services while delivering timely, practical and commercially viable solutions for our clients. It is an exciting new chapter in the Bright Grahame Murray story."

There will be no change to telephone, fax numbers or email addresses.
